Dewey & LeBoeuf is an international law firm headquartered in New York with more than 1,200 lawyers in 15 countries, namely the United States, United Kingdom, Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Poland, Spain, China, South Africa, Kazakhstan, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, and the United Arab Emirates.

The firm's Chicago office represents clients in the following areas: litigation, insurance mergers and acquisitions, reinsurance and insurance regulatory, and business solutions & governance. Our litigators have extensive trial experience in both federal and state courts, as well as extensive appellate, arbitration, and mediation experience. We also handle internal and agency investigations, including grand jury investigations. Our Insurance Group has handled multibillion dollar acquisitions for acknowledged industry leaders, as well as various regulatory matters, financings, securitizations, and restructurings. The bankruptcy lawyers in Chicago represent secured and unsecured creditors, creditors' committees, debtors, trustees, and purchasers and lessors of stock or assets of insolvent entities.

The summer associate program is ten weeks long. As a summer associate, you will have the opportunity to work with experienced lawyers in a variety of practices. There is no formal rotation program. In addition to substantive work, the summer program offers educational and training seminars and social outings. There are a wide range of activities, designed to help summer associates get to know each other and our lawyers, as well as the city of Chicago.

New associates in the Chicago office participate in practice-specific training sessions and are matched with associate and partner mentors to help them with their transition into full-time legal practice. In addition, our associates receive two formal performance assessments per year to aid in their professional development.
